

1 point

Describe an example of a time you used the ideation process in the real world. If you can't think of an example, think of a project where the ideation process could have been useful. Reflect on the steps you took. How did the process benefit the projects you worked on? What were the drawbacks?