

Share your course experience

In this course you learned how to prepare your design specifications for engineers, you added a case study to your portfolio, and you also learned tips and tricks for your job search. Take some time to share your thoughts on all these learnings:

What was the most interesting thing to learn?

What was the most difficult thing to accomplish?