

1.

Now that you have learned about the importance of functionality in a mockup, review the layout for your app's mockups and respond to the following questions:

How well did you incorporate your user's intended navigation in your mockup?

Are there any changes you should make?