

Share your insights

In the previous activity, you identified patterns, themes, and insights from the Gmail labels usability study. Take a moment and share the themes you gathered from the study and insights based on those themes. Answer the following questions:

How was the process of creating insights from themes?

Did you have any themes that were challenging to create insights for?

Are your insights actionable, and if so, how might you take action on them?