Create Your Profile on the Coursera Job Platform

If you're taking these courses in order, you're nearing the end of your data journey! Keep the momentum going by heading over to the Coursera Job Platform and creating a profile. Then, once you have completed the certificate, you'll be able to view open positions from all kinds of companies.

As a first step in this process, consider your personal goals. What's your dream job? What kind of role do you hope to fill once you finish the certificate? Please write 2-3 sentences (20-60 words total) to share your goals with your fellow learners.

Then, visit the discussion forum to read what other learners have written, engage with two or more posts, and share your feedback.

Finally, take what you've learned and create your profile on the Coursera Job Platform!
