Reflect on experiencing a deceptive pattern

In the discussion forum, post about a real-life situation where you experienced a deceptive pattern. Reflect on the situation:
What happened, and what did you do?

Was it a situation that occurred online or in person, at a store?

If you had been in charge of that design, how might you have avoided using a deceptive pattern?