Share learnings from your usability study

You've just completed the usability study for your high-fidelity prototype. Describe some of the feedback you received during the study. Consider the following questions:

Was there anything noted by most of your users?

Is there any feedback you disagree with? Why?

Did anything that the users noticed catch you by surprise?