Prompt 1: "Navigate from the home screen and say your choices out loud as you go."	New > Set Release Date > Calendar > Figma App Crash /// New > Set Release Date > Calendar > Assign Related Tasks > Assets > End	Participant seemed confused and asked a lot of questions regarding app features with no clear termination point.	"Where do I enter events into the calendar?"	3
Prompt 2: "Moving forward from the calnder screen, where do you wan to go next and why?"	Calendar > Digital Assets > Home > Assign Task Schedule > Calendar	Discussion with the participant yielded a general sense of positivity regarding the app, but with a vaguness about the specific features	"I might use an app like this one, but I'm not sure how to work it."	2

Additional Notes: Participant needed additonal prompts to get through the app.

Prompt 1: "Navigate from the home screen and say your choices out loud as you go."	New > Upload Digital Assets > Audio Singles	Participant seemed confident moving through the screens.	"Where is the upload form?"	3
Prompt 2: "Moving forward from the calnder screen, where do you wan to go next and why?"	New > Set Release Date > Digital Assets > Photos	Participant had a clear goal in mind but became frustrated at the lack of an upload screen.	"This has a lot of screens, but I can imagine what you're going for"	2
Additional Notes: This participant's click path exposed several pain points that can be addressed on the next draft.

Prompt 1: "Navigate from the home screen and say your choices out loud as you go."	New > Set Release Date > Calendar > Upload Page > Assign Related Tasks > Lists > Digital Assets > Home	Participant was able to succesfully navigate through the app with less difficulty than most of the other participants.	"I can see this being really cool when it's done"	1
Prompt 2: "Moving forward from the calnder screen, where do you wan to go next and why?"	Calendar > Upload Page > Upload Audio Files	Participant was able to clearly explain their click path without much difficulty.	"Maybe the 'assign related tasks' button should be moved to it's own screen"	1
Additional Notes: The second prompt yielded a more successful user flow.

Prompt 1: "Navigate from the home screen and say your choices out loud as you go."	New > Upload Digital Assets > Home	Participant expressed confusion upon reaching the "Upload Digital Assets" screen.	"I think this doesn't make a lot of sense and could be simplified or streamlined in some way"	2
Prompt 2: "Moving forward from the calnder screen, where do you wan to go next and why?"	New > Assign Task Schedule > Merch > Home > Assign Task Schedule > Calendar > Upload Page	Participant made better progress through the app this time, but still felt frustrated	"What if the upload screen had a button on the home page?"	2

Additional Notes: This participant's click path made me realize that I have redundant but unconnected screens within the app for "upload digital assets" and the upload screen connected directly to the calendar

Prompt 1: "Moving forward from the calnder screen, where do you wan to go next and why?"	New > Set Release Date > Calendar > Assign Related Tasks > Social > Digital Assets > Home	Participant had little trouble navigating, but expressed some uncertainty regarding the purpose of each screen and button.	"Why do you have a seperate screen for tasks if you could just have a dropdown within the calendar itself?"	1
Prompt 2: "Navigate from the home screen and say your choices out loud as you go."	New > Upload Digital Assets > Home	Participant made one loop back to the home screen and didn't continue back into the app a second time.	"I like the idea of this app if you can do it in fewer screens"	2
Additional Notes: The navigation of the app would be simpler with fewer screens and more features nested within the calndar itself
