1. Why is it important to call in industry experts when planning a design sprint?   0 / 1 point

  - ◉ Experts can offer solutions for the design challenge.
  - ○ Experts can train designers in UX research.
  - ○ Experts can help clarify the problem you're trying to solve.
  - ○ Experts can test the product as a user.

  ⊗ Incorrect
  Experts are used in the Understand phase to help clarify the design problem, but they don't provide solutions.

2. A design sprint brief is a document that UX designers share with participants _____.   1 / 1 point

  - ○ to provide a critique on the design
  - ○ to display the look and feel of a product
  - ○ to determine roles and responsibilities
  - ◉ to help them prepare for the design sprint

  ✓ Correct
  A design sprint brief is a document that UX designers share with participants to help them prepare for the design sprint.

3. A design sprint brief should include the current state of the project and an estimated launch plan.   1 / 1 point

  - ◉ True
  - ○ False

  ✓ Correct
  A design sprint brief should include the current state of the project and an estimated launch plan, which are presented in the project overview section.