1. A technology startup called Tempeste is creating the design system for their latest project. They're defining the styles for the color palettes, typography, grid definitions, and iconography. Which section of the design system are they working on?

    1 / 1 point

    ○ UI patterns
    ○ Guidelines
    ⦿ Visual style
    ○ Support code

    ⊘ Correct

2. Consider the following scenario:

    0 / 1 point

    Gabriel is a designer at a branding consultancy. Gabriel's team successfully implements a design system, and delivers a product design that impresses their clients at a rapidly-growing startup. The clients are so happy, in fact, that they immediately want to expand the product line by iterating on the design.
    What is the result of implementing a design system?

    ⦿ Established consistency
    ○ Scaled the product
    ○ Implemented an approach for managing the client
    ○ Saved time and money

    ⊗ Incorrect
       Review the video that addresses the benefits of design systems↗.

3. What types of components and elements can a designer include in their sticker sheet? Select all that apply.

    1 / 1 point

    ☑ Icons

       ⊘ Correct

    ☑ Colors

       ⊘ Correct

    ☑ Navigation bars

⊘ Correct

☐ Designers

4. Which of the following statements are true about a company's design system? 1 / 1 point

○ It should not be shared with anyone but the UX designers.
○ It is a user-facing guide that provides the brand's mission and values.
○ It is where all the high-fidelity prototypes are saved.
● It can be used by multiple teams including designers and developers.

⊘ Correct

5. What are some elements that frequently make up a design system? Select all that apply. 0.5 / 1 point

☑ Wireframes

⊗ This should not be selected
Review the video that introduces design systems↗.

☐ Animation
☑ Typography

⊘ Correct

☑ Iconography

⊘ Correct

6. Fill in the blank: If a design team is working on a new logo and visual style, a design system reinforces _____ and helps the design team present a unified presence to the world. 1 / 1 point

● brand identity
○ company values
○ interest
○ user likability

⊘ Correct

7. Beyond offering visual elements to copy and paste, what else might an open-source design system provide? Select all that apply.

0.75 / 1 point

☑ A guide for typical user flows

    ⊗ This should not be selected
    Review the video that covers Google's open source design system ↗.

☑ Links to outside resources like downloadable fonts and icons

    ⊘ Correct

☐ A library of every color palette that passes WCAG accessibility standards

☑ Guides on how to use the design elements effectively

    ⊘ Correct

8. What components can be used in a sticker sheet? Select all that apply.

1 / 1 point

☐ Sound clips

☑ Icons

    ⊘ Correct

☑ Colors

    ⊘ Correct

☑ Buttons

    ⊘ Correct

9. When a designer makes a change to a component in a sticker sheet, what happens to each instance of that component?

1 / 1 point

◉ They get updated according to the same change.

○ They revert to the original version.

○ They remain the same.

○ They get deleted.

    ⊘ Correct

10. A designer wants to develop design components for a new project but needs to start quickly. How can an existing design system assist the designer? Select all that apply.

1 / 1 point

- ☑ The designer can use some of the components from an existing design system and adjust elements to match the product's branding.

  ⊘ Correct

- ☑ The designer can mix their own components with components gathered from a design system.

  ⊘ Correct

- ☐ The designer can ask developers to code components from common design systems used in similar projects.
- ☐ The designer can start their own design system from scratch.

11. To let a user know that a component has been changed, which feature of Material Design should you use?

1 / 1 point

- ○ Status
- ⦿ State
- ○ Navigation
- ○ Elevation

  ⊘ Correct