Share your portfolio project goal statement

Now that you have created your portfolio project goal statement, share your goal statement with your peers. Think about your research when developing your statement and answer the following questions:
Who is your user?

What user needs did you uncover during your research?